DIRECTOR

ABOUT GAURAV

Gaurav Mishra is a Registered Liquidator and joined the Corporate Restructuring division of Hall Chadwick in 2008. Gaurav has more than 15 years experience in all aspects of corporate recovery and advisory. He is highly recognised for his effective insolvency and reconstruction solutions to businesses of various sizes and industries, ranges from family owned business to public listed entities.

In recent years, Gaurav successfully restructured a number of businesses in Retail, Hospitality, Wholesale Food Distribution, Research & Development and Power Distribution Service industries. These businesses successfully survived and continued to offer employment to their employees whilst providing a higher return to their creditors.

In addition to formal insolvency appointments, Gaurav regularly conducts pre-lending reviews and investigative Accountants (IA) reports for various second tier lenders and major banks. Also, he was engaged by the business to provide specialised advice on cash flow management and solutions, business process improvement and business risk analysis

According to Gaurav, strong client relationships, efficiency and accuracy are vital for success. He works closely with business advisers and understands the importance of their role throughout the restructuring process. His clients benefit from his strong knowledge of the relevant legislation, excellent investigation/analytic skills and attention to detail.

In 2009, Gaurav relocated to Melbourne with one of the Hall Chadwick Partners to establish the Melbourne office. Since then he has played a vital role in expansion of the Melbourne office.
